

The lost city of Petra entrance is located at the end of a dark, narrow chasm; words cannot describe the unique beauty of the magnificent entrance to the Treasury. Carved deep into the rich red sandstone it has a stunning glow to it. Once inside it's simply amazing as there is a whole underground city to explore.

Itinerary

Day 1 Amman - Petra

Today you will be met at Amman Airport and transferred to Petra. Overnight in Petra [D]

Day 2 Petra

Today begins a truly memorable experience as you enjoy a full day at Petra, one of Jordan's natural treasures. Discover Petra's most famous monument, the Treasury, as it dramatically appears at the end of the Siq. See the amazing colours of the sandstone and the statues, niches and water channels carved along the walls. Discover various walks and climbs to hundreds of buildings, temples, arched gateways, colonnaded streets and haunting rock drawings. Your guide will explain the history of this great city and include the sites of Pharaoh's Castle, the Triumphal Arch, the Amphitheatre and, situated near the top of one large hill, the stunning Monastery. The view from here is worth the climb! Overnight in Petra. [B,D]

Day 3 Petra

Today you have a second day to enjoy the amazing city of Petra. You also visit little Petra (Al-Beidah), and see the ruins of the ancient village which date back some 9,000 years and constitute one of the oldest archaeological sites in the Middle East. Overnight in Petra.[B,D]

Currency

In Jordan:

The national currency is the Jordanian dinar, abbreviated and generally referred to as JD. The dinar is divided into 100 piasters or 1,000 fils. For example, a price of 3.750 means 3 dinars and 750 fils. Major credit cards are widely accepted in hotels, upmarket shops and restaurants. It is best to carry local currency in smaller notes or coins, as vendors never seem to have change. It is also very handy when you like to give a tip. Jordanian currency should be left in the country, therefore exchange your currency prior to leaving.
